Victory for 60

Grant Victory's Citroen Saxo has helped him to championship titles – yet cost just £60. He tells Michael Lear why motorsport is more affordable than you think.

Have you ever bought a car for less than £100? Grant Victory's Citroen Saxo is one of the most affordable cars on the market. It's a 1997 model, but it's still going strong. Grant has owned it for over 10 years, and it's still going strong. He's won several championships with it, and he's still going strong. He's won several championships with it, and he's still going strong. He's won several championships with it, and he's still going strong.

"Because I didn't think it was going to last long, it's still on the same oil, the same spark plugs, the same cambelt..."

However, there has been one other notable incident that explains the car's longevity. Grant says that when he first bought the car, it was a 1997 model. He says that when he first bought the car, it was a 1997 model. He says that when he first bought the car, it was a 1997 model.
